Meaningful youth engagement must find a place in anti-corruption policies. This special event will launch a new policy guide developed by the Independent Commission Against Corruption (ICAC) of Hong Kong, China, the International Association of Anti-Corruption Authorities (IAACA) and UNODC to support anti-corruption authorities in engaging youth meaningfully. In addition, winners of a Southeast Asian police cadets essay competition and the Coding4Integrity Youth Anti-Corruption Hackathon will share their ideas on how to safeguard integrity and ethics from the perspective of young generation.
